

You in the spotlight...

When applying for a job you need make sure you don't just describe what you do or have done. For highly contested roles you will need to stand out by demonstrating the impact you had in a quantifiable way. Use the below template to explore your skills, knowledge and experiences that will help you to stand out from others.

Who are you?

Who would others describe you ...

What are you good at ?

What are your skills and attributes ...

What makes you credible?

What are your qualifications and experiences ...

So what?

What are the benefits of working with you ...

What makes you different from others at the same level ...